

Impact Stat Sheets

This handy impact stat sheet is ideal for newsletters, adding to internal memos, social media posts or posters. These examples demonstrate how donors created pathways out of poverty in 2018. If you need additional copies, please download them off our website at myunitedway.ca/campaign.

15,051 backpacks filled with school supplies were given to K-12 students.

4,272 students received nutrition support, including snacks and meals.

Over 4,500 hygiene kits were provided to men, women and children who are homeless or at risk of homelessness.

188 safety plans were completed for families at-risk of domestic violence. Over 1,900 referrals were made to support resources.

549 Welcome Home Kits filled with household goods were provided to families moving into stable housing.

1,184 individuals attended financial empowerment workshops, providing money management skills.

Over 3,500 hours of therapy were provided to individuals facing mental health challenges.

Over 1,100 pieces of identification were stored to prevent the loss of crucial identity documents.

1,500 Kid Kits® were given to families to support healthy child development in kids age 0-5.

Impact Stat Sheets

This handy impact stat sheet is ideal for newsletters, adding to internal memos, social media posts or posters. These examples demonstrate how donors created pathways out of poverty in 2018. If you need additional copies, please download them off our website at myunitedway.ca/campaign.

5,782 people with low income received help to file their taxes and access benefits.

Over 1,200 youth and adults received clinical services from trained staff after a sexual assault.

288 participants took part in kitchen learning programs that taught budgeting and healthy meal prep.

185 days of after-school programs were offered to families and children with low income.

113,730 meals were served to seniors with low income.

1,594 rides were provided to seniors to access medical appointments and recreational activities.

Over 4,400 hours of one-on-one literacy training were provided to adult learners.

400 educational presentations on how to end sexual violence were given to students.

Over 2,250 seniors were provided with basic needs including clean clothes, hygiene products and shower facilities.

15,051 backpacks filled with school supplies were given to K-12 students.

4,272 students received nutrition support, including snacks and meals.

Over 4,500 hygiene kits were provided to men, women and children who are homeless or at risk of homelessness.

188 safety plans were completed for families at-risk of domestic violence. Over 1,900 referrals were made to support resources.

549 Welcome Home Kits filled with household goods were provided to families moving into stable housing.

1,184 individuals attended financial empowerment workshops, providing money management skills.

Over 3,500 hours of therapy were provided to individuals facing mental health challenges.

Over 1,100 pieces of identification were stored to prevent the loss of crucial identity documents.

1,500 Kid Kits® were given to families to support healthy child development in kids age 0-5.

5,782 people with low income received help to file their taxes and access benefits.

Over 1,200 youth and adults received clinical services from trained staff after a sexual assault.

288 participants took part in kitchen learning programs that taught budgeting and healthy meal prep.

185 days of after-school programs were offered to families and children with low income.

113,730 meals
were served to seniors with low income.

1,594 rides were provided to seniors to access medical appointments and recreational activities.

Over 4,400 hours of one-on-one literacy training were provided to adult learners.

400 educational presentations on how to end sexual violence were given to students.

Over 2,250 seniors were provided with basic needs including clean clothes, hygiene products and shower facilities.